No father is given on his birth certificate, hence we assume that James' mother was unmarried at the time of his birth. James was brought up by his grandmother Betty Deacon (Dibble) in Bruton, SOM, ENG when his mother married Henry Smithwick & moved to Trevethin, MON, WAL. Although he was known by the names James Thomas in later life & on his death certificate, his birth certificate gives Silas James and his marriage certificate gives James Thomas Silas. Another discrepancy relates to the year of birth which is given as 1862 on the birth certificate. However the implied year of birth from the 1881 & 1901 censuses & the marriage & death certificates is 1860. We assume that the discrepancies arose as a result of his separation from his mother at an early age or the birth was registered late.
